(A) Subject to Paragraph 13 below, this Bill of Lading insofar as it relates to sea Carriage by any vessel, whether named herein or not, shall have effect subject to the Hague Rules or any legislation making such rules or the Hague-Visby Rules compulsorily applicable (such as COGSA or COGWA) to this Bill of Lading, and the provisions of the Hague Rules or applicable legislation shall be deemed incorporated herein.

The Hague Rules (or COGSA or COGWA if this Bill of Lading is subject to U.S. or Canadian law respectively) shall apply to the Carriage of Goods by highways and roads and by inland waterways. Reference to Carriage by sea in such rules or legislation shall be deemed to include reference to highways and roads and inland waterways. If and to the extent that the provisions of the Harter Act of 1893, as amended, would otherwise be compulsorily applicable to regulate the Carrier's responsibility for the Goods during any period prior to loading on or after discharge from the vessel, the Carrier's responsibility shall instead be determined by the provisions of subsection 6.3 below, but if such provisions are found to be invalid, such responsibility shall be subject to COGSA.

(B) The Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of, and rights to, all limitations and exclusions of liability conferred or authorized by any applicable law, statute or regulations of any country, including but not limited to, Sections 4281 to 4287 of the Harter Act, as amended, and where applicable, any other provisions of the laws of the United States of America, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, also any laws, statutes, or regulations available to the owner of the vessel(s) on which the Goods are carried.

The responsibility of the Carrier is limited to that part of the Carriage from and during loading onto the vessel up to and during discharge from the vessel.

The Carrier shall not be liable for any loss or damage whatsoever in respect of the goods or for any other matter arising during any other part of the Carriage even though Charges for the whole Carriage have been charged by the Carrier.

The Merchant authorizes the Carrier, as agent, to enter into contracts on behalf of the Merchant with others for transport, storage, handling or any other services in respect of the Goods prior to loading and subsequent to discharge of the Goods from the vessel without responsibility for any act or omission whatsoever on the part of the Carrier or others.

The Carrier may, as such agent, enter into contracts with others on any terms whatsoever, including terms less favorable than the terms in this Bill of Lading.

(A) Where the stage of Carriage in which the loss or damage occurred cannot be proven:

(i) The Carrier shall be entitled to rely upon all exclusions of liability under the rules or legislation that would have applied under 6.1(A) above had the loss or damage occurred at sea or, if there was no Carriage by sea, under the Hague Rules (or COGSA or COGWA if this Bill of Lading is subject to U.S. or Canadian law respectively).

(ii) Where under subparagraph (i) above, the Carrier is not liable in respect of some of the factors causing the loss or damage; it shall only be liable to the extent that those factors for which it is liable have contributed to the loss or damage.

(iii) Subject to 6.4(C) below, where the Hague Rules or any legislation applying such rules or the Hague-Visby Rules (such as COGSA or COGWA) is not compulsorily applicable, the Carrier's liability shall not exceed the lesser of US $500 per package or shipping unit or US $2.00 per kilo of the gross weight of the Goods lost or damaged.

(B) Where the stage of Carriage in which the loss or damage occurred can be proven but is not otherwise covered by section subparagraph 6.2 above.

(i) The liability of the Carrier shall be determined by the provisions contained in any international convention or national law of the country which provisions:

- (a) cannot be departed from by private contract to the detriment of the Merchant, and
- (b) Would have applied if the Merchant had made a separate and direct contract with the Carrier in respect of the particular stage of Carriage where the loss or damage occurred, and had received as evidence thereof any particular document which must be issued in order to make such international convention or national law applicable

(ii) With respect to the transportation in the United States or in Canada to the Port of Loading or from the Port of Discharge, the responsibility of the Carrier shall be to procure transportation by carrier(s) and such transportation shall be subject to the inland carrier(s)' contracts of carriage and tariffs and any law compulsorily applicable. The Carrier guarantees the fulfillment of such inland carrier(s)' obligations under their contracts and tariffs;

(C) Where neither (i) nor (ii) above apply, any liability of the Carrier shall be determined by 6.3(A) above.

6.4 - GENERAL PROVISIONS

Scheduled or advertised departure and arrival times are only expected times and are not a guarantee of delivery by a date certain.

Scheduled or advertised departure and arrival times may be advanced or delayed should the Carrier find it necessary, prudent or convenient, and guarantee delivery by a date certain.

(B) Package or Shipping Unit Limitations

Where the Hague Rules or any legislation making such rules compulsorily applicable (such as COGSA or COGWA) to this Bill of Lading apply, the Carrier shall not, unless a declared value has been noted in accordance with 6.4(C) below, be or become liable for any loss or damage to or in connection with the Goods in an amount per package or shipping unit in excess of the package or shipping unit limitation as set forth by such rules or legislation. Such limitation amount according to COGSA is US $500 prepackage or in the case of Goods not shipped in packages per customary freight unit and according to COGWA is $500 CND. If no limitation amount is applicable under such rules or legislation, the limitation shall be US $500 per package or customary freight unit.

(C) Ad Valorem

The Merchant agrees and acknowledges that the Carrier has no knowledge of the value of the Goods, and that higher compensation than that provided for in this Bill of Lading may not be claimed unless, with the consent of the Carrier, the value of the Goods is declared by the shipper prior to the commencement of the Carriage stated in this Bill of Lading and extra freight is paid, if required. In that case, the amount of the declared value shall be substituted for the limits set forth in this Bill of Lading.

Any partial loss or damage shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such declared value.

Lading, such particulars are included solely at the request of the Merchant for his convenience. The Merchant agrees that the inclusion of such particulars shall not be regarded as a declaration of value, and in no way increases the Carrier's liability under this Bill of Lading. The Merchant further agrees to defend, indemnify and hold harmless the Carrier against all consequences of including such particulars in this Bill of Lading. The Merchant acknowledges that, except when the provisions of Clause 6.4(C) apply, the value of the Goods is unknown to the Carrier.

(E) Rust, etc

It is agreed that superficial rust, oxidation or any like condition due to moisture, is not a condition of damage, but is inherent to the nature of the Goods, and the Carrier's acknowledgement of receipt of the Goods in apparent good order and condition is not a representation that such conditions of rust, oxidation or the like did not exist on receipt.

(F) Notice of Loss or Damage

The Carrier shall be deemed prima facie to have delivered the Goods as described in this Bill of Lading unless notice of loss of, or damage to, the Goods, indicating the general nature of such loss or damage shall have been given in writing to the Carrier or to his representative at the place of delivery before or at the time of removal of the Goods into the custody of the Person entitled to delivery thereof under this Bill of Lading or, if the loss or damage is not apparent, within three consecutive calendar days thereafter.
